Service User Charter

Each service user will have the right to:

be treated as an individual dignity, privacy and respect participate in the planning of your care or support plan receive care or support appropriate to your needs expect confidentiality at all times independence and accountability for your own actions undertake individual tasks equal opportunities in relation to services access a formal complaints procedure and to be represented by a friend or advisor if you so wish

ASIST Project

The ASIST Project offers flexible, intensive support to young homeless people aged 16–25 years old who are vulnerable or lead chaotic lifestyles. The project provides social, emotional and practical support. The staff team work with the young person to identify their individual support needs enabling them to grow in confidence sufficiently to make positive decisions about their own future.

Referral Criteria

Referrals are made to the project by local authority Care Managers. A referral application form will be completed in consultation with the young person. On receipt of the referral, staff at ASIST will arrange to meet with the young person to discuss their support needs and agree an appropriate level of service.

Services Offered

One to one key worker support

Support in accessing education / employment

Support in accessing other appropriate support agencies

Support with daily living skills, housekeeping and budgeting

Support with social skills and healthy living

Support in constructive use of leisure time

The project is registered with and inspected by the Care Commission. Reports are available on request

The Mungo Foundation offered all the support I needed and taught me that I only get out of life what I put in.
