CASS Project

The Community Alcohol Support Service (South), is provided by The Mungo Foundation in collaboration with the Homelessness Partnership and Glasgow Addiction Services.

The service is available to people living within the South of Glasgow, incorporating Greater Pollok and South West (Govan, Ibrox, Cessnock etc) and South and South East (Gorbals, Cathcart, Govanhill, Castlemilk etc), whose lifestyle is impacting on their ability to maintain their tenancy or puts them at risk of becoming homeless.

Referral Criteria

CASS-South will accept both self referrals and referrals from other agencies. Following referral, potential service users will be given an assessment interview, from which an individual care plan will be drawn up. To be referred you must:

Be aged 18 or over.

Have a history of homelessness / hostel dwelling.

Be experiencing difficulty with alcohol use and any related physical / mental health issues.

Have problematic alcohol misuse which could lead to homelessness.

Services Offered

The service will offer:

Advice, information and counselling on alcohol related issues to prevent people becoming homeless.

Advice and support on relapse management / prevention.

Advice and support around the use of alcohol with the aim of reducing alcohol consumption towards safer, more controllable levels or eventual cessation.

Access to counselling services.

Advice / information and support to improve social / life skills.

Support will also be provided in the following areas:

Preventing people becoming homeless, by providing advice, information and counselling on alcohol related issues.

Supporting people who are about to become homeless or who are already homeless by seeking to access appropriate accommodation.

Providing a resettlement service for people leaving homelessness and through-care support and advice on alcohol related issues.

“

The Mungo Foundation offered all the support I needed and taught me that I only get out of life what I put in.
