Service User Charter

Each service user will have the right to:

be treated as an individual dignity, privacy and respect participate in the planning of your care or support plan receive care or support appropriate to your needs expect confidentiality at all times independence and accountability for your own actions undertake individual tasks

equal opportunities in relation to services access a formal complaints procedure and to be represented by a friend or advisor if you so wish

Campus Project

Campus Project is a residential project offering temporary accommodation and support for up to thirty separated children seeking asylum, aged 16–18 years.

Campus provides a place of safety and responsive flexible support to people who may be separated from their country, families and homes.

Referral Criteria

Each resident will have an assigned social worker who refers them to the Project and is responsible for assisting them with legal, financial and asylum claim issues. Each service user will:

Have just arrived in Glasgow and require assistance in orientation and developing their independent living skills.

May be ready to move from residential children's services and are not ready to manage their own tenancies.

Be ready to move on from more intensive support/accommodation services.

Be able to demonstrate a reasonable degree of independent living abilities.

Services Offered

Campus staff work with each resident equally on shift. There is also a key working system where personal support plans are developed with the resident to ensure their needs are followed up. Services offered include:

Getting to know local area and services, transport system etc

Accessing general health / well being support services

Accessing English language, literacy classes / relevant college courses

Accessing activities and events such as music / sport through other (voluntary) organisations

Adjusting to communal living / developing group living skills

Developing independent living skills— budgeting, cooking etc

Accessing further forms of support or counselling if appropriate

Completing forms and paperwork

Accompanying to appointments

General encouragement / emotional support

The Mungo Foundation offered all the support I needed and taught me that I only get out of life what I put in.
