

Where Do I Get Help?

Think about the different places you go and the people you see every day. Describe or write the names of people who help and encourage you in each circle.

