

AIMS OF THE SESSION:

- To recognise that behaviour can affect other people.
- To identify current and potential relationships.
- To discuss how relationships have changed.
- To think about whether relationships have changed as a result of substance use.